

“Tanga is a high-energy and charismatic group sizzling with infectious dance rhythms!”

– Edward Lefebre, [vancouver salsa.com](http://vancouver salsa.com)

“A lot of power and some serious energy, I am a big fan! “

– Sal Ferreras, acclaimed Canadian percussionist and arts educator

“Tanga plays with energy and a driving rhythm that has crowds up on their feet from the instant they start to play. The rhythm section is awesome with horn lines that are sharp and clean. The vocalists communicate their enthusiasm and emotion to the crowd in every song”

– Trevor Hooper, Kwalicum Music Association

Vancouver’s Tanga has jumped to the top of the Viejoteca chart with their release Simmer and Serve, a smokin’ mix of Cuban style salsa and latin jazz.”

– DJ Gury Gury, Viejoteca online radio

“Tanga had the whole crowd engaged with the sounds of a great rhythm section, smoking vocals and a hot horn section. The band played an excellent selection of materiel from classic Cuban rhythms to modern funky latin jazz with vocals in Spanish that had the audience dancing in their chairs! A fantastic performance!”

– Michael Perkins, Collingwood Music School

“Great dance music full of energy, excellent to dance to”

– DJ Robertito, Belgium

“A new GREAT salsa CD from Canada!!! Highly recommended”

– Pietro Carbognani, Radio Vinilemania, Italy

“5 out of 5 Stars!”

– Sonny Cruz, LatinMusicNow.com

“Simmer and Serve offers up a popuirri of latin sounds guaranteed to bring anyone down...up again! Enjoy muchachos!”

– Renae Thibeault, Michigan

“Tanga’s sound is fresh and exciting for both dancers and non-dancers alike!

– Cheyenne Kamran, Director of the 2010 Vancouver International Salsa Festival
